This privacy policy sets out how Deans Computer Services LTD uses and protects any information that you give Deans Computer Services LTD when you use our services.

Deans Computer Services LTD is committed to ensuring that your privacy is protected. Should we ask you to provide certain information by which you can be identified when using this website, then you can be assured that it will only be used in accordance with this privacy statement.

Deans Computer Services LTD may change this policy from time to time by updating this page. You should check this page from time to time to ensure that you are happy with any changes. This policy has been effective since 25th May 2018.

What we collect

We may collect the following information:

- name and job title
- contact information including email address
- demographic information such as postcode
- other information relevant to customer surveys and/or offers

How we collect information

We collect information from the Contact Us enquiry form on our website; from e-mail correspondence; from telephone enquiries and we gather statistics around e-mail opening and clicks using industry standard technologies to help us monitor and improve our e-newsletter and mailings.

What we do with the information we gather

We require this information to understand your needs and provide you with a better service, and for the following reasons:

- Manage your account
- Provision of support and sales services
- Internal record keeping.
- We may use the information to improve our products and services.
- We may periodically send promotional emails about new products, upgrades to hardware and software, special offers or other information which we think you may find interesting using the email address which you have provided.

- From time to time, we may also use your information to contact you for market research purposes. We may contact you by email, phone, fax or mail. We may use the information to customize the website according to your interests.

Security

We are committed to ensuring that your information is secure. In order to prevent unauthorised access or disclosure, we have put in place suitable physical, electronic and managerial procedures to safeguard and secure the information we collect online.

How we use cookies

A cookie is a small file which asks permission to be placed on your computer's hard drive. Once you agree, the file is added and the cookie helps analyse web traffic or lets you know when you visit a particular site. Cookies allow web applications to respond to you as an individual. The web application can tailor its operations to your needs, likes and dislikes by gathering and remembering information about your preferences.

We use traffic log cookies to identify which pages are being used. This helps us analyse data about web page traffic and improve our website in order to tailor it to customer needs. We only use this information for statistical analysis purposes and then the data is removed from the system.

Overall, cookies help us provide you with a better website, by enabling us to monitor which pages you find useful and which you do not. A cookie in no way gives us access to your computer or any information about you, other than the data you choose to share with us.

You can choose to accept or decline cookies. Most web browsers automatically accept cookies, but you can usually modify your browser setting to decline cookies if you prefer. This may prevent you from taking full advantage of the website.

Links to other websites

Our website may contain links to other websites of interest. However, once you have used these links to leave our site, you should note that we do not have any control over that other website. Therefore, we cannot be responsible for the protection and privacy of any information which you provide whilst visiting such sites and such sites are not governed by this privacy statement. You should exercise caution and look at the privacy statement applicable to the website in question.

DCS does not sell or rent Personal Data to marketers or unaffiliated third parties. We use a marketing information platform where your data could be held outside of the EU but only by companies that are GDPR compliant. Any information that you provide will be transferred to them for processing in accordance with their privacy policy and terms and falls under the EU-US Privacy Shield framework.

Controlling your personal information

You may choose to restrict the collection or use of your personal information in the following ways:

- if you have previously agreed to us using your personal information for direct marketing purposes, you may change your mind at any time by writing to or emailing us at marketing@deansltd.co.uk

We will not sell, distribute or lease your personal information to third parties unless we have your permission or are required by law to do so. We may use your personal information to send you promotional information about third parties which we think you may find interesting, if you tell us that you wish this to happen.

You may request details of personal information which we hold about you under the General Data Protection Regulation (GDPR) (EU) 2016/679. A fee of £10 will be payable. If you would like a copy of the information held on you please write to gdpr.rep@deansltd.co.uk. You may also request that your personal information be deleted.

If you believe that any information we are holding on you is incorrect or incomplete, please write to or email us as soon as possible, at the address below. We will promptly correct any information found to be incorrect.
